

Melissa Enriquez

Rhythm Consultant

When she's not backpacking, hiking or rock climbing, Melissa Enriquez loves to solve problems and thrives on helping executives and departmental leaders develop healthy business habits. She is fascinated by people's interactions and motivations, and her clients love how she can help them understand complex concepts by providing clear step-by-step instructions that resonate with their learning styles. She is insightful, methodical, persistent, and analytical, and she has an eye for detail and operational excellence.

Melissa is a former Rhythm client who has many years of experience using the Rhythm, Great Game of Business, and Rockefeller Habits methodologies. She gained experience developing and executing internal business strategies and processes at Everon Technology Services, a managed IT services company, where she served on the executive team. While there, she organized and facilitated her team's strategic planning sessions and achieved positive results by ensuring accountability in the execution of those plans. Melissa earned her Bachelor of Science in Manufacturing Engineering from Boston University's College of Engineering. Melissa lives in Denver where she can get her outdoor adventure fix, participate in rec league volleyball and softball, and consult with her clients, including White Lodging, DeinDeal, Imaginet, and ProService.

Melissa is a wonderful part of our Consulting Village. Our team has facilitated over 3,000 consulting sessions with clients around the world and across a wide spectrum of industries. We have helped clients in technology, healthcare, education, hospitality, manufacturing, media, professional services and many other industries to align their teams and accelerate their growth. Our consultants have a reputation for going the second mile to ensure client success. They help companies grow by making sure that every person understands the company's strategy and priorities and are working on the right things to achieve them.

While all of our consultants have their own areas of expertise and personal experience, they are all Rhythm experts and masters in understanding and implementing every aspect of our Think Plan Do methodology. We invest in our Core Value "Keep Smart" to ensure that our team of expert consultants are honing their craft to help your company grow. Our consultants meet weekly to discuss clients and best practices so that you will get the benefit of different perspectives and patterns that have proven successful. With our village of consultants, you have a whole team of experts working to support your business and help you achieve your dreams.
