Ted Skinner

Rhythm Consultant

When he's not scuba diving with his son, Ted Skinner is passionate about disrupting the status quo and is fascinated with the rapid pace of technology and innovation. Ted's strengths are balancing his technical and analytical aptitude with his sense of humor and genuine interest in his clients' success. He has the unique ability to explain complex issues in simple ways and knows how to motivate teams he consults to be excited and engaged. He loves to consult clients on developing revenue growth strategies (Winning Moves), and his clients appreciate his energy, insight, and attention to detail.

Ted earned his Bachelor's degree at The University of Michigan in Ann Arbor. He spent 14 years as a software executive at PR Newswire, a global media company. Through his tenure, he acquired skills in marketing, public relations, Agile software development, product management, organizational leadership, sales and project management. At PR Newswire he won the prestigious John Petrillo award, which is given to the employee that shows the highest dedication to customer success. A former Eagle Scout, Ted enjoys spending time in nature, supporting children's literacy, and being with his wife of 18 years and their two children.

Ted is a wonderful part of our Consulting Village. Our team has facilitated over 3,000 consulting sessions with clients around the world and across a wide spectrum of industries. We have helped clients in technology, healthcare, education, hospitality, manufacturing, media, professional services and many other industries to align their teams and accelerate their growth. Our consultants have a reputation for going the second mile to ensure client success. They help companies grow by making sure that every person understands the company's strategy and priorities and are working on the right things to achieve them.

While all of our consultants have their own areas of expertise and personal experience, they are all Rhythm experts and masters in understanding and implementing every aspect of our Think Plan Do methodology. We invest in our Core Value "Keep Smart" to ensure that our team of expert consultants are honing their craft to help your company grow. Our consultants meet weekly to discuss clients and best practices so that you will get the benefit of different perspectives and patterns that have proven successful. With our village of consultants, you have a whole team of experts working to support your business and help you achieve your dreams.
