

Tiffany Chepul

Rhythm Consultant

When she's not busy with her horses, Tiffany Chepul is helping teams achieve their goals and enjoying her role as a consultant, teaching smart people new things. She is an expert at taking difficult concepts and making them simple. She can diagnose issues quickly and motivate a team to action. She is patient, methodical, diligent, and detail-oriented, and her clients view her as a trusted advisor. Her work has helped clients such as Chicago Public Schools, MobilityWorks, Veeam, AvidXchange, Ignite Social Media, ClassBook, and Herman Electronics.

Tiffany earned her Bachelor's degree at Appalachian State University. She spent 13 years in the editorial and sales organizations at PR Newswire, a global media company. Through her tenure, she acquired skills in public relations, exceptional customer service, marketing, sales, project management, and technical software support. Acting on her strong entrepreneurial spirit, Tiffany started her own consulting firm, Toolshed Partners, Inc., to help public relations companies evaluate products and vendors to provide maximum efficiency at the lowest cost. She also acts as partner in her family's CPA firm, providing input on strategic planning, operations and efficiency. Tiffany lives and works on a horse farm with her husband, two children, her black & white paint, a chubby pony, and a lazy barn cat.

Tiffany is a wonderful part of our Consulting Village. Our team has facilitated over 3,000 consulting sessions with clients around the world and across a wide spectrum of industries. We have helped clients in technology, healthcare, education, hospitality, manufacturing, media, professional services and many other industries to align their teams and accelerate their growth. Our consultants have a reputation for going the second mile to ensure client success. They help companies grow by making sure that every person understands the company's strategy and priorities and are working on the right things to achieve them.

While all of our consultants have their own areas of expertise and personal experience, they are all Rhythm experts and masters in understanding and implementing every aspect of our Think Plan Do methodology. We invest in our Core Value "Keep Smart" to ensure that our team of expert consultants are honing their craft to help your company grow. Our consultants meet weekly to discuss clients and best practices so that you will get the benefit of different perspectives and patterns that have proven successful. With our village of consultants, you have a whole team of experts working to support your business and help you achieve your dreams.

"Tiffany does a great job in working with our team and myself in challenging us, encouraging us, and helping us to be a better company"

- Thomas Douglas, President, JMark
